JULY 2022 ■ VOLUME 6 NUMBER 7

Message From Our New President

Greetings, Newcomers:

July is upon us! Relaxing with cool beverages and traveling to cooler places.

Thank you again, Ladies, for electing me as your president this year. I look forward to serving the Newcomers & Friends membership. This year we became gradually active as a club again, recovering socially from the pandemic. As we rest from activities during the summer, I already anticipate the fun the fall will bring us.

In seeking volunteers for appointed board positions, I visited with long-time members who are now new friends to me. I find at any given activity, I discover new gems to add to my basket of friends.

I chatted with a lady who was one of the first store managers for JC Penney. Management was a boy's club back then. She did us all proud, running her store, buying product line, and breaking glass ceilings while maintaining a home life and a successful 58-year marriage. She has lived in 14 towns, in seven states, seven homes, two apartments, and an RV for six months. Listening to her talk, I knew she'd lived on the East Coast as she has the saltwater of Cape Cod on her tongue. An empty nester after 25 years of marriage, she has vacation adventure stories that entertain her multiple circles of friends.

A long-time Newcomer, she left us for a couple of years, but now she's back. Jumping in to serve the club has put her in multiple roles and functions, hosting, organizing, giving selflessly, and she is the new parliamentarian, Pat Deem. I am privileged to work on the board with her this coming year.

Sue Chandler recently had surgery. She is recovering well at home and looking forward to a busy summer.

Jean Galusha experienced a serious fall in May, breaking her femur. She was in rehab and is now home. She is able to use a walker, and her recovery is coming along well. Jean is very appreciative of the many cards received from members.

So I leave you with a challenge for the upcoming year. Look for the diamonds around you! You will find them in your travels, at the market, on vacation, and in your neighborhood. Enrich yourself with their life experiences. Invite the local diamonds to join us as we reactivate in September. And take time to recognize the big shiny one in your bathroom mirror. You are dazzling!
