

THE REDDING NEWCOMERS & FRIENDS CLUB RULES AND REGULATIONS

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization shall be, The Redding Newcomers & Friends Club, hereinafter referred to as the “Club”.

ARTICLE II – THE PURPOSE OF THE CLUB

The purpose of the Club is to provide women new to the Redding area, as well as those who are established residents, opportunities to form friendships with other women and to participate in a variety of Club activities.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Women new to the Redding area and other residents may join anytime. A prospective member may attend a General Meeting, a Coffee, and two Club activities before membership dues are required.

ARTICLE IV – DUES

The Club fiscal year is June 1 to May 31. Annual dues of $30.00 MUST be received from all members before June 1. Dues are prorated for new members. If dues are not paid by June 1, membership will be terminated. A name badge is required for all members at a cost of $5.00.

ARTICLE V – THE ELECTED AND EXTENDED BOARD

The purpose of the Elected and the Extended Board is to select, organize, and oversee Club activities and general functions.

The Elected Board is the President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Financial Secretary, Membership Chairperson, plus the Parliamentarian. The Elected Board will act in an advisory capacity and make recommendations to the Extended Board regarding amendments to the Club Rules and Regulations and/or any other pertinent issues.

The Extended Board shall be the Appointed Board, the Events and the Activities Chairpersons/Co-Chairpersons. The Extended Board will vote on all issues at the Board Meeting and may request a full membership vote on the Club Rules and Regulations or other specific issues.

The length of office for any elected position is one year, with a maximum term of two consecutive years. An incumbent has the option of an unopposed second year. A vacancy of any office shall be filled by appointment of the President with the acceptance of the Elected Board. An Elected Board member cannot accept an additional Board position. However, if the occasion arises where there is no other member willing to chair or co-chair an activity or event, an elected officer may serve in these positions.

The procedure book, referred to as the ‘Leadership Book’, shall be given to each new Officer and Chairperson at the Joint Board Meeting held each June. This book is an instruction/reference manual for new Officers and Chairpersons; and it is their responsibility to keep it current.

ARTICLE VIII – POLICIES

- 1a. The Club is a nonprofit mutual benefit social organization. All activities arranged for or by the Club are for the pleasure and convenience of the members and guests who desire to participate. The Club does not assume any responsibility for the well-being or safety of the participants or their property in any manner pertaining to said activities.
  - b. The Club may consider donating funds to deserving projects. Any monetary donation made in the name of, or on behalf of the Club, must come from the Club treasury. Club donations may also be made in the form of goods or other items collected by the membership. A request for donations of any kind must be submitted to and approved by the Extended Board and may be submitted for a vote at a General Meeting.
  - c. A member wishing to use the Club as a venue to solicit funds or assistance for a charitable or community project must receive prior approval from the Extended Board. If approved, a member may place a brief announcement in the Welcome Mat, space permitting. A member may also place community or charitable flyers/brochures on the table provided for this purpose at the General Meeting.
  - d. The Club will not be placed in the position of acting as a sponsor for charitable or community projects.
  - e. The Club is not a political or religious organization and as such will not permit any political/religious advertising or political/religious activity at any Club function.
2. Should the Club maximize the capacity of its meeting facility, or should the membership become too large and cumbersome to manage effectively, the Extended Board may close enrollment to women who have resided in the Redding area longer than two years and their names will be placed on a waiting list. This policy does not pertain to women who have resided here less than two years.

3. Members will receive a copy of the Welcome Mat, the Club Rules and Regulations and a Membership Directory. These must not be used as a source for mailing lists or any other commercial purpose.
4. A “Thank You” message may be placed in the Welcome Mat at no charge, space permitting. A member will not be allowed to advertise a business (personal or third party) in Club publications or at any Club meeting and activity.
5. No event may deplete the treasury.
6. The Extended Board may approve subsidies for members at Club socials and they may also approve subsidies for members’ guests when it is deemed appropriate and financially prudent to do so.
7. A member who does not renew her membership by May 31, reinstatement is possible by paying both the annual dues of $30.00 plus a late assessment fee of $10.00.
8. The Extended Board will set the amount of dues and assessment fee.
9. The Club official meetings are the Elected Board, the Extended Board and the General Meeting. A General Meeting is open to all members. Both Elected and Extended Board Meetings are open to any member who notifies the President of her desire to attend.
10. Members attending Club socials may bring guests, as space permits.
11. A majority is 51 percent of votes cast.
12. Amendments to the Club Rules and Regulations shall require ratification by 51 percent of votes cast by the Extended Board.
